Marion Estates Home Tour

Good Morning Neighbors,

I want to make you aware of an upcoming event in our neighborhood. Many of you are familiar with Alison King and her efforts to showcase and promote the Mid-Century Modern Architecture in and around Phoenix. Every year she organizes a week-long celebration of Mid-Century and Modern Architecture. Events include bike tours, speaking engagement, walking tours (including the David Wright House, Cosanti, the Valley Ho) and a day dedicated to touring local modern homes.

This year, the home tour will be in Marion Estates and our surrounding area. The date of the home tour will be Sunday, March 25th. Evidently, they have up to 1200 participants who will be walking, driving and biking through our neighborhood to tour Mid-Century and Modern homes here.

Tickets for this week-long event go on sale tomorrow. Alison King told me that they sold out in 5-hours last year. If you want to learn more about this upcoming event, go to:
